NewIntelligence and Silver Touch Technologies Announce Strategic VAR Partnership to Expand SAP Business One Market Reach

Montreal, Canada / Chelmsford, Essex – Aug 01, 2025 – NewIntelligence, a leading provider of analytics and business intelligence solutions, today announced a strategic partnership with Silver Touch Technologies UK Ltd, a certified SAP Business One Value-Added Reseller (VAR) and IT solutions provider based in Chelmsford, UK. The collaboration is set to deliver enhanced analytics, ERP, and digital transformation services to SMEs across Europe.

As a VAR, Silver Touch will handle the resale, implementation, custom integration, and support of SAP Business One—including cloud, HANA, mobility, and reporting—while leveraging their full ecosystem of ERP add-ons and digital services

“Partnering with Silver Touch allows us to combine their expertise in SAP Business One with our advanced analytics solutions. Together, we can deliver powerful, data-driven insights that help businesses maximize the value of their ERP systems and make smarter, faster decisions.”

- Corey Mendelsohn, President of NewIntelligence

“Our partnership with NewIntelligence empowers us to bring next-generation analytics and reporting capabilities to our SAP Business One customers. We are excited to jointly deliver solutions that help businesses unlock data-driven growth and operational excellence.”

- Sam Kelly, Director Business Development of Silver Touch Technologies

Both companies remain dedicated to delivering outstanding customer service, fostering innovation, and driving significant growth for their clients.
